ARE HAYSEEDS NOW!

Merry Haymakers Last Night Harvested a Crop of Haystacks!

Mr. James C. Thomas, accompanied by his son, Mr. R. F. Thomas, of near Mt. Gilead, left yesterday afternoon for Willow Springs, Mo., to visit his son, John B. Thomas. They will be gone about one month.

Every citizen of Maysville would do well to remember the words of the late George Washington: "Truth, from an unbiased view."

And in his next week's issue he told the simple facts, (Some of them were as cutting as a sword.)

In other words, a Council of Haymakers was instituted, under the immediate direction of the following abjects:—

Chief Haymaker—Dr. J. W. Guthrie, Manchester.

Assistant Haymaker—Thomas H. Russell, Maysville.

Past-Chief Haymaker—Arthur Tucker, Manchester.

Overseer—R. C. Flaughner, Manchester.

Boss Driver—Howard Cobb, Manchester.

Guard of Haystack—C. L. Roseman, Maysville.

Hornblower—Thomas O'Neill, Manchester.

There were about twenty anxious victims in waiting, but on the night of the 28th the bungalow was knocked out of a barrel of monkeys and the fun ran all over the floor at Redmen's Wigwam.

Crushed Fruit at Chenoweth's.

On Saturday afternoon Dr. James Shackleford discharged the last small-pox patient from the Posthouse.

Miss Jennie Moore of Hayswood Seminary was one of the judges at the examination Saturday at the Conservatory of Music at Lexington.

C. and O. Flyer No. 4, which reaches here at 10 p. m., stopped at the Commerce street crossing last night and ejected a party of eleven—ten men and one woman.

The funeral of the late R. C. Bland took place from the Christian Church at Washington at 10 o'clock this morning, with services by the Rev. Bala Metcalfe, the interment being at Shannon.

Mr. John Smith, while lying down at home taking a nap several evenings since, was bitten on the right eyelid by a spider, and since then he has suffered untold pain. His many friends will be glad to hear that the eye is much better.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. A. N. Ellis, assisted by Dr. James Shackleford, removed a cataract from the right eye of George Stuns. Several months since he was shot in the eye, which injured it to such an extent that it was rendered sightless. Some time since a cataract formed over it, and it is thought its removal will restore the sight.

The funeral of the late Henry Warren took place at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the interment being in the family burying-ground in the West End. Mr. Warren was a familiar figure among fishermen, being probably the greatest fisherman on the Ohio. He enjoyed the distinction of having caught the largest catfish ever captured in this river.

Mr. William Hicks, three years ago while working at the Hall Flow Works, got a silver of steel in his lower lip. Dr. O'Brien was called, sewed up the lip, but it did not remove steel. For the past six months it has been giving Mr. Hicks some trouble. A few days ago he went to Dr. J. T. Gaines, who made an incision, took out the piece of steel, which measured about a half an inch long and an eighth thick. The injured part is now healing nicely.

WHEN NATURE Needs assistance it may be best to render it promptly, and one should remember to use even the most perfect remedies only when the case is serious. The most gentle and gentle remedy is the Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

MOST TOO EARLY.

Charivariers Pulled in By Chief Donovan and Several Officers.

Last night about 9 o'clock about fifty members of the tin-can-circus-and-windmill fraternity marched up Third street to Casto, where they proceeded to unlimber their hideous noise-makers on Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brown.

They had hardly begun when Chief Donovan and several officers arrived on horseback and gave the order for the crowd to disperse, which they did, much to the gratification of the neighbors as well as the happy pair for whom the charivari was intended.

There were several convalescent people in the neighborhood whose nerves wouldn't stand such a strain as that produced by that organization.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at last a cure for that disease which has been so long a curse to all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thus destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and restoring nature in doing so.

The proprietors have much faith in its curative powers that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for full testimonials. Address, J. J. CHERNEY & CO., Toledo, O., Sold by Druggists, etc.

Question Answered. Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your neighbors and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness.

Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart Failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the action of the stomach and bowels, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by J. C. Peck.

The Goebel Law is the most fitting monument that GOEBEL could have.

Be not discouraged, Republicans; there will be many thousands of honest Democrats who will vote with you in Kentucky in the coming election. The majority of Kentuckians are not political thieves.

The Dallas (Texas) News recalls to the minds of Democrats a plank in the Democratic platform at Charleston and Baltimore in 1860. This plank says:

"Resolved, That the Democratic party is in favor of the acquisition of the island of Cuba on such terms as will be honorable to ourselves and just to Spain at the earliest practicable moment."

But it is not worth while to call the attention of the Democrats to all the inconsistencies of its past. That would require more space than the average newspaper cares to give to dead matter.

When Governor TAYLOR left Frankfort to go to Washington, he was a fugitive from justice; when he went from Washington to New York to consult a prominent attorney about his case before the Supreme Court, he had gone to invoke the aid of Governor ROOSEVELT to prevent his arrest; and when he returned to Washington from the New York trip, he was going to remain there, lest his return to Frankfort be followed by his arrest for the murder of WILLIAM GOEBEL.

These are but few of the malignant falsehoods that have been put forth by the Goebelite papers of Kentucky; and like all previous lies emanating from such sources, they have been fully disproven—the latter by the fact that Governor TAYLOR is now in Frankfort, ready to answer any charge that may be made against him, or to suffer any indignity or outrage that may be heaped upon him by the unscrupulous ruffians who are now in the saddle in our sorely afflicted state.

Republicans everywhere believe the Goebelites will leave nothing undone to convict Governor TAYLOR of criminal complicity in the killing of GOEBEL; and a press dispatch says Kentuckians in Washington look at the matter wholly from its political standpoint, and have no expectation that Governor TAYLOR will receive even fair, not to say just, treatment. Said one Kentucky gentleman:

"The Democrats probably will try to refuse bail for Governor TAYLOR. He could give bond in any amount, a million dollars if necessary, but the Democrats will want to humiliate him. He will be handled by Democratic officials, and a partisan jury will be packed for his trial. People outside Kentucky little understand the meaning of all this. Under the cloak of the law the gravest violations of civil liberty and personal rights are being permitted and continue to be committed. Governor TAYLOR has no fear of justice, but it is hardly to be expected that he will get even that in Kentucky."

This sounds very much like an unjustified prejudice of the case, but it represents the sentiment of Republican Kentuckians in the National Capital. It is declared that Governor TAYLOR's arrest will necessitate his conviction, or will bring about the destruction of Democratic claims and prospects in Kentucky. If the prosecution fails to convict him, persecution will follow. The Democrats, it is asserted, fully understand this, and will, therefore, try all the harder to secure a conviction. This is Governor TAYLOR's view of the case. The Governor has no knowledge, his friends declare, what is the nature of the testimony that has been procured against him.

If Governor TAYLOR is unseated, it is said that he will be renominated by the Republicans for Governor, while the Democrats probably will nominate BRECKHAM, and the fight will be made over. Governor TAYLOR's friends thus expect to see the curious spectacle of a man under indictment for murder, and possibly confined in Jail, being renominated for Governor of the state wherein he is under prosecution—and persecution.

Democratic sympathy for the people of Porto Rico, like Democratic sympathy for the Boers, is stimulated largely by Democratic eagerness to place Mr. BRYAN in the White House.

The Hon. J. C. S. BLACKBURN presents a singular position. If the election which gave Governor TAYLOR a majority of the Kentucky votes was irregular, how can Mr. BLACKBURN's title to a seat in the United States Senate, which was secured through the same process, be deemed perfect?

In 1892 the people voted for a change. In the four subsequent years they found themselves without a cent of change. This year they are content with the change they have in their pockets and won't throw away the substance for the shadow again, even to please the Democratic party of pessimism.

Mrs. Joseph H. Dodson, who has been ill several days, is improving.

NEWS IN KENTUCKY.

FEUD DECLARED OFF.

The White and Howard Families Reach a Friendly Agreement After Many Years.

London, Ky., May 1.—It is reported here upon good authority that the White-Howard feud of Clay county has terminated by agreement of the parties. The factions have made friends with each other and have decided not to prosecute in the several murder charges against the Bakers, and that faction will not appear against James Howard, accused of the murder of George Baker, and the indictment is to be dismissed.

Justice Howard, one of the men charged with the murder of William Goebel at Frankfort. Friends of both factions have been trying for some time to get them to quit the game of bloody warfare, but the agreement was made only a day or so ago. Many men have been killed in this feud.

WILL BE A CANDIDATE.

Taylor Will Make the Race This Fall Should the Contest Be Decided Against Him.

Louisville, Ky., May 1.—W. S. Taylor, announced to a small circle of friends that he would certainly be a candidate for governor this fall, in the event that the supreme court decides the contest against him. It was said by one of Mr. Taylor's closest political and personal friends a day or two ago that the governor would take part in the race this fall should the Democrats win their suit and the election of a governor this fall be therefore necessary.

Mr. Taylor said: "I know I will have some obstacles that confronted my party last fall, but I feel it to be my duty to make the race again this year and do all in my power to put down the infamous Goebel law."

Little Girl Missing.

Louisville, Ky., May 1.—Sarah Weinberg, a 3-year-old child living at 113 West Market street, in the heart of the city, has been missing since Saturday afternoon. When last seen the little one was with her playmates on the sidewalk. Her parents fear she has been kidnapped. The efforts of the police and a reward of $50 have availed nothing.

Louisville Track Fine.

Louisville, Ky., May 1.—The track at Churchill Downs is in fine shape, and everything augurs well for a most complete season of the races on Thursday. The Memphis and Nashville contingents arrived and the horses were given centers to loosen them up and get rid of the stiffness that might have arisen from the journey.

To Dismiss Warrant Against Sutton. Frankfort, Ky., May 1.—The warrant against J. L. Sutton, sheriff of Whitley county, charging him with complicity in the assassination of Senator Goebel, it is said, will be returned dismissed. Sutton has been ordered to furnish $10,000 bond, but it is supposed the investigation did not reveal anything connecting him with the crime.

Now a National Bank.

Louisville, Ky., May 1.—The Bank of Kentucky ceased its existence as a state bank. It was the oldest institution of the kind in Kentucky, having been chartered in 1834. The recent action of the courts in deciding that it could no longer pay taxes under the Hewitt law made the change to a national bank imperative.

Race Judge Selected.

Louisville, Ky., May 1.—At a meeting of the directors of the new Louisville Jockey Club W. F. Schulte was chosen presiding judge for the coming race meeting. Charles F. Price, for eight years secretary of the club, resigned.

Taylor Returns to Frankfort.

Frankfort, Ky., May 1.—W. S. Taylor returned to the city from Louisville, where he had been in conference with political friends. He declined to discuss the work of the grand jury, which has finally been discharged.

No New Indictments Returned.

Frankfort, Ky., May 1.—The grand jury made its final report and was discharged. No additional indictments were returned, and the report was void of unusual features.

NO ONE WAS INJURED.

The Reported Great Loss of Life by a Cyclone at La Jarta, Mexico, is Unfounded.

Laredo, Tex., May 1.—This city and vicinity were visited a few days ago by a severe storm, with much rain, wind and electric storm, but beyond the striking of a few trees and out-houses by lightning doing no damage. At La Jarta, Mexico, 19 miles from here, the wind developed into a gale, and the storehouse of A. Sanchez was blown from its site against the railroad station house, which was considerably damaged. La Jarta does not contain over 100 or 200 inhabitants, and none of them was injured by the storm. The reported great loss of life here is without foundation.

Tornado and Hall Storm.

Selma, Ala., May 1.—A terrific tornado and hall storm visited Orrville. Several farms were literally denuded of vegetation. Corn and cotton will have to be replanted. Half-tones of enormous size fell, and several cows and hogs were found dead after the storm had passed.

PARDONS NO GOOD

Judge Cantrill Decides That Caleb Powers and John Davis Must Stand Trial.

ARGUMENT FOR CHANGE OF VENUE.

Could Not Recognize Taylor as Governor of Kentucky Now That the Pardons Were Issued.

The Judge Also Denied That the Soldiers in Frankfort Were Guarding the Court House, but Were in Charge of the Jail.

Frankfort, Ky., May 1.—After the arraignment of republican Secretary of State Caleb Powers, Capt. John W. Davis, Harland Whitaker, W. H. Culton and Richard Conner, colored, for complicity in the murder of William Goebel, and the admission of the accused not guilty, Mr. Brown, one of their attorneys, tendered the pardons granted by republican Gov. Taylor to Caleb Powers and John Davis, and offered them as a bar to the prosecution. In presenting the pardons Mr. Brown said: "We present these pardons issued by the late Governor of Kentucky, and plead them as a bar to further prosecution. We make a formal demand for dismissal of the indictments. We do not ask for a new trial, but with the hope that the court will sustain the motion."

Judge Cantrill said: "The alleged pardons are not valid. They are in title to the office of governor is in dispute, and the litigation over it is still pending in the courts. Several of the pardons have passed through question at issue, and these have decided that Taylor is not governor and was not at the time these pardons were granted. The intention to dismiss the indictments is overruled."

The petitions for changes of venue were then made. The prosecution entered an objection and filed counter-affidavits. The affidavits for the defendants were signed by Geo. A. Lewis, editor, and B. C. Milan, banker, and the affidavits state they verily believe it is impossible, in the present state of public feeling, for the defendants to obtain fair and impartial trial in this community. The counter-affidavits filed by the prosecution are signed by John C. Noel and R. D. Armstrong, president and vice president, respectively, of the Farmers' Bank of Kentucky; James Thompson, livestockman, and Mason Lucas, farmer. They state that there is no such feeling as would prevent a fair and impartial trial.

Both sides presented a lengthy list of witnesses, who were called to give testimony as to the state of feeling and the question of whether a fair trial can be obtained here. There was a good deal of quibbling between the prosecution and the defense as to where the burden of proof should rest in the issue raised, but the prosecution finally gave in, and Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin announced that he would accept the defense, and was ready to begin hearing proof from his witnesses.

At this point Col. R. W. Nelson, of the defense, announced his preliminary argument, objecting to the introduction of proof on the question of a change of venue. His statement, he said, was professedly in three reasons for asking a change of venue: first, the defendants without hearing proof that the court house was in charge of armed men and would recognize one of the contending parties to the political controversy, and that there were other evidences of bias and prejudice on the part of the jury, and that judicial knowledge of the facts which it was not necessary to have oral proof to show that the conditions here are such as to interfere with the dispensation of justice.

Judge Cantrill denied that the court house was under guard of the soldiers, but said they were in charge of the jail by order of the county judge. He overruled the objection of Col. Nelson, and three witnesses were heard on the side of the prosecution in regard to the change of venue. Those who testified were City Judge W. C. Herndon, J. C. Noel and Dr. Estes. They gave it as their opinion that there is no sentiment in this county that would prevent a fair trial. The court then adjourned.

SAUSAGE EXCLUDED.

The Prussian Government Agrees to a Compromise on the Meat Inspection Bill.

Berlin, May 1.—Count von Posadowsky-Wegner, secretary of state for the interior, made the following statement: "The Prussian government has agreed to a compromise on the meat inspection bill, excluding sausage and canned meats, but admitting pickled meats in pieces of over eight pounds, provided the meat has been thoroughly pickled. If it should prove insufficiently pickled, it will be treated as fresh meat, and could only be admitted in whole carcasses."

"Instead of the present clause prohibiting meat imports entirely after three years, the new clause provides that the meat question must be settled anew after five years."

It is expected by the entire Prussian government, Count von Posadowsky-Wegner says, that this compromise will be adopted by both the Reichstag and the Bundesrat.

ALL OTHERS OUTDONE.

Chicago Gives Her Greatest Ball in Honor of the Victor of Manila Bay.

Chicago, May 1.—Never in the history of the great Auditorium has there been within its walls a sight more beautiful than that revealed last night when the great ball given in honor of Adm. Dewey was at its height. There were festal occasions without number in the great hall, for dances for charity, balls in honor of illustrious civilians, famous soldiers and distinguished foreigners; but this was the first time that Chicago has had within her gates a guest a distinguished representative of the American navy, the first time she has been permitted to pay her tribute of honor and respect to the victor of Manila bay, and she utilized the opportunity to the full.

There was nothing wanting. It was a decisive success from first to last in all details, from the decorations of the walls to the reception proper which was tendered to the admiral. There were present, perhaps, somewhat too many people to allow of all dancing in comfort, had all or half of them cared to dance at one time, but the program was so arranged that it was fairly well under the other people, sought the boxes and the spacious foyer, leaving the floor to the admiral and his guests, who were in the hall. Fully 2,000 people were present.

After Adm. and Mrs. Dewey had entered the hall and exchanged greetings with the guests from the reception committee they took their stand at Mayor Harrison's right, and to them were presented the guests of the city, who had followed them into the hall. Then came in long lines the guests of the ball, all who desired being afforded an opportunity of greeting the admiral and his wife. There was no grand march, the admiral's party retiring to his box when the line of guests had passed, and the orchestra striking up a waltz, the floor being cleared for the dancing.

At midnight the admiral and Mrs. Dewey left the hall for a luncheon in their honor given in an adjoining room by Robert C. Chas. Taylor, and then, after returning to the ballroom for a brief interval, he and his party retired.

HOLD THE HILLS.

The Boers Are in Great Force Between Fourteen Streams and Kimberley.

VERY ACTIVE WEST OF BLOEMFONTEIN

They Threaten to Interrupt the Communications of the British Forces at Warrenton.

Gen. Hunter's Contemplated March to Mafeking Will Be Abandoned for the Present—The Boers Now Occupy Windsorton.

London, May 1.—The Boers are now showing uncommon activity west of Bloemfontein. They are in force between Fourteen Streams and Kimberley. On Sunday they occupied Windsorton, west of the railway, and now threaten to interrupt the communications of the British force at Warrenton, to the north. This, too, at a time when Gen. Hunter is about to start on a 200-mile march to Mafeking, probably with 5,000 men.

To the east of Bloemfontein the Boers Sunday night were still holding the hills near Thabale Nchu, while behind them long wagon trains loaded with wheat for the Boer army in the north are moving through Ladybrand. Vespere, lately the scene of a sanguinary fighting, is deserted. Gen. Brabant and Col. Dalgety having moved northward.

A dispatch from Maseru, dated Monday, says: "The Boers are a second time astounded to see the Boers peacefully retiring with herds when the natives the almost complete booty of the British, who are said to be the conquerors."

According to information from Maseru, the main body of the Boers reached Lecur river, the west of Ladybrand, Sunday, small parties tried to proceed at intervals of ten miles to behind the rear and whip up the Boers.

Slight outpost actions take place daily beyond Kamee Siding, where the head of the British invasion is cantoned.

African horse sickness has broken out in Gen. Buller's army. It proves especially fatal among freshly arrived animals. The Bloemfontein correspondents point out that the deficiencies in the veterinary department cause thousands of losses.

Gen. Lucas Meyer, replying to Gen. Buller's complaint that some of the British prisoners at Pretoria are lodged in the town jail, says that only those are so treated who have tried to escape. He reports, moreover, that Boer prisoners are confined in the town jail at Pitermaritzburg with natives.

The war specialists consist chiefly of detached scraps, the favorite introduction of the military commentators and editorial writers being that, as only scant news has been wired, something big is probably about to happen.

The Daily Chronicle's expert says: "If a solid victory is to be attained, the British must have different leadership from what has been displayed in the Deventersdy operations."

Gen. Cronje Given a Ride.

Jamestown, St. Helena, May 1.—Gen. Cronje and his wife, accompanied by the general's private secretary, were permitted to attend religious services Sunday at Deadwood Camp, after which they had their first ride around the country, an experience which seemed to give Gen. Cronje much pleasure. The famous Boer commander was received with cheers.

British Subjects Ordered to Leave.

Pretoria, April 30.—As a sequel to the Johannesburg explosion the government has ordered British subjects with a few exceptions, to leave the republic within 48 hours. Nearly 4,000 men have been subscribed for the relief of the victims.

Boths in Supreme Command.

Ladysmith, April 30.—The country north of Sunday's river seems comparatively clear of Boers. Gen. Louis Botha has returned to Pretoria to resume the supreme command of Transvaal forces.

TRYING TO COMPROMISE.

Turkey Has Not Yet Repented to the Indemnity Claims Made By America.

Washington, May 1.—It is said at the state department that Mr. Griscom, the United States charge at Constantinople, has not yet acquainted the department with the nature of the reply made by the porte to his last presentation touching the American indemnity claims, so it is presumed that he himself has not yet received the answer.

There is some reason to believe that a powerful effort is being put forth by the Turkish government to compromise the missionary claims unofficially. Various methods to achieve this have been suggested, but the one which is looked upon as most feasible is that connected with the building of a warship for Turkey in the United States. If the claimants chose to receive the amount of their claims from an American ship builder, instead of through the state department, thereby removing from the department the basis for further prosecution of its demand upon the porte some interesting points of international law might be raised. It would seem that, once committed to the state department, no intervention claim can not be withdrawn without the consent of the department, though whether there would be a refusal in this case can not be stated.

ONLY AS INDIVIDUALS.

How the Boer Peace Commissioners Will Be Received By the Secretary of State.

Washington, May 1.—It can be stated that the persons composing the Boer delegation who are about to sail from Europe for the United States this week will not be denied access to the secretary of state when they reach Washington. They will be received as individuals, just as Mr. Montagu White, but with the distinct understanding that they are not recognized as Boer representatives.
